

Interspecies Communication

with Anna Breytenbach from South Africa

23rd August 2013, 18h00 – 25th August 2013, 14h00 in Germany

We all have the ability to communicate with animals and plants.

In this two-day

Interspecies

Communication workshop,

Anna Breytenbach will show how communication

creates a valuable bridge between the worlds of humans and nonhumans.

Participants will be guided in the universal language of telepathy and the use of natural intuition, developing abilities to communicate with other species.

This practical, experiential learning will give a good foundation in communicating with animals and connecting with plants at the individual and collective levels, while understanding their roles and relationships with other aspects of Nature. Participants will get to know the basics of communicating meaningfully with animals and other species, understanding who they really are and enjoying a deeper connection with them.

Anna Breytenbach (www.animalspirit.org) is a professional animal communicator who has received advanced training through the Assisi

International Animal Institute in California and has been practising for several years in the USA, Canada, UK and South Africa with domestic and wild animals. Her goal is to raise awareness and advance the relationships among human and nonhuman animals, on both the personal and spiritual levels.

Place

The workshop will be held at the “Hohlenstein” in Lellwangen, Germany. It lies in the valley Deggenhausertal, which is also called the “Valley of Love”.

The centre is on a South facing slope, right at the edge of a large forest. When the air is clear you can see Lake Constance and the mesmerizing Swiss Alps shining in the distance.

Accommodation is in your own tent. If you prefer more comfort, you can rent a room in a nearby pensione. Please get in touch early if you are considering this as an option.

Address
